

Green Forest Cowboy Gathering & Trade Show

May 8th & 9th
Green Forest, Arkansas

Glenn Ohrlin - Nationally-renowned cowboy musician and storyteller who performs traditional cowboy songs, range ballads, stories and poems from the Old West.

Steven Spalding - Recognized across the country as a cowboy preacher and recording artist and poet who's produced seven CD's of cowboy and country gospel music.

Noon Friday, May 7- Noon Sunday, May 9 -- Trade Show exhibitors set up to sell

Saturday, May 8

9:00 - 11:00 a.m. - Cowboy Poet Talent Contest on Cattlemen's Steakhouse stage

11:30 - 1:00 p.m. - Lunch break

1:00 - 3:00 p.m. - Headline entertainer show in Green Forest Livestock Arena

3:15 - 5:00 p.m. - Open mic cowboy poetry competition on Cattlemen's Steakhouse stage

5:00 - 6:00 p.m. - Dinner

6:00 - 8:00 p.m. - Headline entertainer show in Green Forest Livestock Arena

8:30 - 10:00 p.m. - Loree Blackburn Steakhouse Band performs on the Cattlemen's Steakhouse stage with Steven Spalding and guests.

Sunday, May 9

11:00 - 12:00 a.m. - Cowboy Church in the Green Forest Livestock Arena

Paul Harris - Originally from Arkansas, he's a cowboy musician and poet from New Mexico with two CD's to his credit.

Jerry Schleicher - A cowboy poet and country humorist from Parkville, Missouri, he writes a country humor column for GRIT magazine.

Francine Roark Robison - Oklahoma's Cowboy Poet Laureate, she's been nominated for Female Poet of the Year.

Abe Reddekopp - A Canadian cowboy singer now living in Kansas City, Missouri, he's recorded four CD's of traditional cowboy music.

Phil Rexwinkle - He's a cowboy poet and working cowboy from Welch, Oklahoma, who's seen the world from the wrong side of a horse.

Loree Pound Blackburn - Sponsor and recording artist at her Cattlemen's Steakhouse in Green Forest, Arkansas.

The wagon train arrives Saturday!

